

a crazy man could haul a trunkful of them.
it's so easy to use them,
it's a wonder they don't use themselves.

(joe and freddy jammed their weapon
and were jumping around like idiots;
philly missed the target completely,
so sam, his partner, slapped him in the head.
al and leeper (danny) slipped on loose gravel and partially crushed their weapon; jose and mr. soap didn't care -- they popped a rocket into a dirt slope and hid in a latrine, to smoke cigarettes. that day, only cateye and ogden hit a tank. they said it was a damn shame, a waste of money, and they hated doing it.)

ogden said: sergeant -- this is a bunch of bullshit.

sergeant gets angry:
i oughta take the damn things away from you and give them to a platoon of damn children.

ogden said:
do that.
